Having a manuscript published in the International Journal of Biology and Biomedical Engineering was a fantastic experience. I endorse the NAUN Journals because of the rigorous and professional review process. I believe that my paper has improved and strengthened as a result of the revisions made in response to the Reviewer's remarks. Thank you very much, dear Reviewers and The Editor Team at NAUN Journals for pointing out the missing point in my manuscript. I'm looking forward to working with NAUN Journals in the future and I recommended to others to publish with NOUN. Thank you for your assistance.

Yours sincerely
